INTRODUCTION

The petitioner appeals the decision by the Department of Social Welfare terminating her ANFC benefits because the youngest child in her family has reached the age of eighteen and is not expected to graduate high school before turning nineteen. Based on the uncontroverted evidence presented it is found that the facts and legal issues in this matter are indistinguishable from those in Fair Hearings No. 11,260 and 11,648, decided by the Board on May 17, 1993. Those cases were subsequently reversed by the Secretary of Human Services and have been appealed to the Vermont Supreme Court.

ORDER

The Department's decision is reversed on the basis of the Board's decision in Fair Hearings No. 11,260 and 11,648. The decision in those cases is incorporated by reference herein.
