

STATE OF VERMONT

HUMAN SERVICES BOARD

In re ) Fair Hearing No. 14,550

)

Appeal of )

ORDER OF REMAND

Inasmuch as the petitioner had divested herself of most of the assets in question before the effective date of the Department's decision (September 16, 1996), the matter is remanded to the Department for a decision regarding what effect, if any, those divestments shall have on the petitioner's eligibility for benefits as of that date.

The petitioner has the right to further hearing regarding any decision the Department might make. At any future hearing, the parties have the right to introduce additional evidence regarding the possession and disposition of the petitioner's resources.

The petitioner's ANFC and Food Stamp benefits shall continue at least until the conclusion of this matter.

###